E-COMMERCE

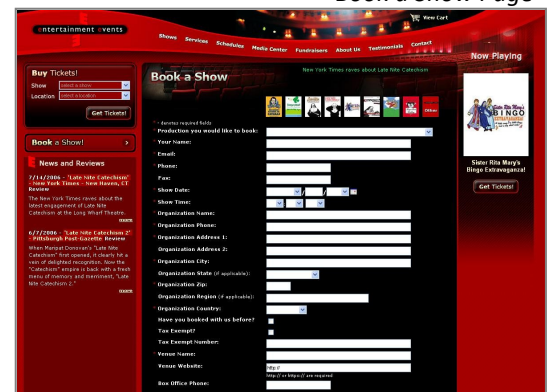

Entertainment Events, Inc. (EEI) is a theatre production company that specializes in off-Broadway comedies such as Tony n' Tona's Wedding. Since the company's launch, EEI was in search of a way to make ticket sales an easy and accessible process for all audiences.

To achieve this goal, EEI teamed up with Americaneagle.com to create an e-commerce Web site that enables online ticketing. Since its launch, the site has helped increase revenue opportunities, since the online interface makes it easy to handle all aspects of hosting a performance — from booking, to marketing, to selling tickets.
